WINTER'S TAIL

(A Midsupper Night's Dream)

The world's favourite feline is back... as the Ski Animal!

GARFIELD has fallen asleep in front of the ice box and starts to dream.

He dreams of the Alps, and that reminds him of Northern Italy – which reminds him of LASAGNA! (hum, sounds like lunch...). As the dream unfolds GARFIELD remembers that just round the other side of the Alps is Switzerland – reminds him of Chocolate! (hum... sounds like dessert). But once in the chocolate factory he discovers the legendary 'Chicken that Lays the Chocolate Eggs'... and from there the chase to catch the chicken is on!

This superb sequel to "Big Fat Hairy Deal" is really four games in one. With GARFIELD skiing, skating, and facing the trials of dealing with Odie (the World's dumbest dog) in this unique blend of both pure arcade-style and adventure/puzzle solving game.

Yet another must for computer game playing GARFIELD fans everywhere!
